Tiera McLeod of Regina hit a medal bonanza this past weekend at the Pan Am Canoe/Kayak Championships held in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. McLeod, who competes with Wascana Racing Canoe Club while at home, was representing Canada at the international competition.

McLeod won silver in the K-1 500m event. She also collected silver in the K-2 500m event with partner Hannah Vaughn of Nova Scotia. McLeod's medal count increased when she placed 2nd in two K-4 events with partners Vaughn, Erica Taras and Nicole Brown of Nova Scotia.

McLeod has represented Canada at several international competitions since 2005. She last competed for Canada at the 2008 Pan Am Canoe/Kayak Championships where she contributed to Canada's medal count.

Cory Rublee, a former member of Wascana Racing Club who now trains in Ontario brought home a silver medal and 2 bronze medals in C-1 events at the competition.

Canada finished the three-day competition with 23 medals (11 gold, 10 silver and two bronze).
