Inspiring Dreams and Building Champions

The pinnacle of national competition, the Canada Games are held every two years, alternating between summer and winter Games. The Canada Games have represented the highest level of national multi-sport competition for developing Canadian athletes for more than 40 years. The objective of the Games is to strengthen sport development and target the next generation of Canadian champions!

Spotlight on Athletes

The 2009 Canada Games will host over 3,000 athletes competing in a myriad of team and individual events. An important goal of the Games is to inspire Canada's youth to participate in sport and physical activity – and to build champions by providing the programs, tools and support that young athletes need to succeed at higher levels.
